

Teaetta Renee Carter

March 28, 1977 - November 9, 2024

Ms. Teaetta Carter, devoted mother, grandmother, sister, and friend was born on March 28, 1977 in Stamford, CT, and departed this earthly life on November 9, 2024, peacefully in her home. Teaetta was educated by the Stamford, CT public school system. Soon after high school, she married Skylar Carter and with their marriage came three beautiful daughters.

Teaetta worked alongside her mother Patricia Price at “Play, Learn, and Grow Daycare” before deciding to be a stay-at-home mother and raise her children. Teaetta cherished starting her day by calling and texting her daughters in the wee hours of the morning asking “Hey you, yall up?” She loved that they were the first voices she heard. Teaetta enjoyed singing and listening to music. Her favorite genres were R&B and Gospel. Being accompanied by her dogs Wilbur and Chase, also brought her warmth and relaxation. She also took pleasure in cooking different meals and baking warm gooey brownies on Christmas morning. Teaetta even found going on grocery runs fun and exciting, she reminded us to never get one of every item, always get two! Above all, Teaetta was a God-fearing woman and a strong believer in the faith. She made it a priority for her daughters to have their own personal relationship with “BIG G”, because he truly is a BIG GOD! When Teaetta became a grandmother she went into full Mimi mode, Calijah was born and her words were “I am complete.” She had her girls and her grandson and that fulfilled her world.

Teaetta is preceded in glory by her mother Patricia Price and her second father Richard Price. She is survived by; her first father James Brown; Three daughters, Aiyana Carter, Bryana Yost (Thomas Yost) and Tatiana Carter. 4 siblings; Regina Andrews, Carolyn Brown, James Anthony Brown (Varah Brown), Richard Rondell Brown, and Marcus Price (Jewel Price), one grandchild; Calijah Yost, and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends. A service will be 11:00 am Tuesday in Phelps Funeral Chapel 311 Hope Drive Winchester officiated by Bishop Bobby Hudnall. Burial will follow the service in Macedonia Memorial Cemetery. Friends will be received 6-8:00 pm Monday in the funeral home.
