“ We met Tim by being next door neighbors for a few years. We always enjoyed talking to him in our driveways. After we moved we also enjoyed seeing him at the flea markets. A great guy. Sending hugs and prayers to the family.

“ When I was little, Tim would take my brother and me to the park and let us play for hours. He had so much patience and love for the two of us. We would spend time playing with trinkets he bought from the flea market and asking him questions about what each item did. Tim gave us so much love. He will forever share a special place in our hearts. We were able to go hiking with him a few times before he past away and I will never forget those special moments with him. I will carry on his love for hiking and remember him every time I take off on a hiking trail, wherever I am.

“ Tim was a man of few words, however his actions spoke loudly. When his father passed, he watched over and cared for his mother with great love. Tim you will be missed. Deborah Robinson
