“ I have just now found out about the passing of a good friend, and classmate. I had the pleasure of being Tim's friend beginning in 3rd grade at Brylary Elementary School on old Rt 522 in Albin. From that asphalt play ground with it's see-saws, to the grass area where we played Red Rover, through Kline School, to Handley, we remained friends. I used to have fun kidding him about his resemblance to the actor Tony Curtis, to which he'd laugh. We may have chosen different paths in our lives, but we stayed friends, and spoke when we could. I have a heavy heart, knowing that though I can no longer text Tim, he will always remain in my thoughts, until we meet again with Our Heavenly Father. Rest in Peace my friend, God Bless you, and thank you for being such a great friend.

“ It was so nice to meet Tim. He has a heart of gold. I loved our talk about music and the meaning behind each song. No more pain Tim. Now you can be free and love with an insight that some won't understand. Fly with and keep an eye on my little guy Bray!
