“ Fifty-seven years ago my dear Uncle and I began hunting together. He didn't seem to mind that I mad a lot of noise walking through the woods as a youngster. He taught me how to hunt and fish. By age ten, he was instrumental in selecting my first gun. It was a single shot H&R 20 ga. Before he left Winchester, he gave me his rolling block, single shot 20 ga. he used in the early days on Limestone Road in Keyser, WV. The gun had been his Mother's (my Grandmother). It is, and will always be my most prized possession of my collection of firearms. I will forever miss his whit and sense of humor.

I love you and will look forward to seeing you again!

“ He welcomed us with open arms in his house when we took road trips to Winchester to visit. His face lit up when we all walked in. He would watch the kids play on the living room for hours and just smile. His house is where this city girl learned what a pee pot was. So many wonderful memories I will forever cherish. Forever in our hearts. You will be missed.

“ *I will miss your smile and you playing on the guitar. I loved most those walks that you did with me and Justin growing up down the railroad tracks. We thought it was awesome finding all those railroad spikes. To us they weren't garbage and you just let us collect them. The fishing trips to the conservation club and shooting guns with mama. Pushing me on the swing that hung from the big tree in the backyard. So many more memories I will cherish and carry with me in my heart. Rest easy granddaddy. We love you.
